

REVEREND DR. DECARLO BOYD COLEY

Preaching a Gospel that Engages Multiple Generations and Connects them to God and the Church

Reverend Dr. Coley is a native of Washington, D.C., a disciple of Christ, a loving husband and father, a dependable friend, and a caring pastor.

His pastoral journey began in 2003 at the Right Way Missionary Baptist Church in Washington DC. He has also pastored New Creation in Christ Baptist Church in Suitland, Maryland, and currently at Kent Baptist Church in Landover, Maryland.

To better serve God's people, Dr. Coley pursued in-depth avenues of education. He earned a Master of Divinity Degree from the Samuel Dewitt Proctor School of Theology at Virginia Union University and a Doctor of Ministry degree from the New Brunswick Theological Seminary located on the campus of Rutgers University.

Dr. Coley has served in multiple capacities in church and society. As a social worker, Dr. Coley employed and counseled individuals with special needs and differing abilities. As a minister, he was an associate at Meridian Hill Baptist Church and a youth minister at Rehoboth Baptist Church, located in Washington, DC. He is also an active participant in The National Capital Baptist Convention, The Potomac River Baptist Association, The Coalition of Churches and Community USA, and The Missionary Baptist Ministers Conference of Washington DC. Dr. Coley is also a recording artist, gifted psalmist, writer, and composer.

Dr. Coley's motto is "Preaching a Gospel that Engages Multiple Generations and Connects them to God and the Church."

Dr. Coley is married to the former Towanda Allen and has two beautiful daughters (D'Auna and Dajia).

